Dog trainer and dog lover Tammy St. Louis, owner of Skiplyn Kennels, wants to encourage dog owners to contribute $1 for every dog they own or have ever owned to help remove a government legislation to ban pit bulls in Ontario.

Ontario

residents are not allowed to own new pitbulls because of the law, which came into effect August 29, 2005.

The money being raised is for legal fees to change Bill 132 through an organization called Banned Aid and their Dollars for Dogs campaign. For more information go to www.doglegislationcouncilcanada.org.
