

Agenda

- 8:00 to 8:30 a.m. Registration & Refreshments
- 8:30 a.m. Chief Elsner Opening Remarks
- 9:00 a.m. Clayton keynote
- 10:00 a.m. Refreshment break
- 10:15 a.m. Cook keynote
- 12:15 p.m. Lunch is provided
- 1:00 p.m. Janet Gasparini – Social Planning
- 1:30 p.m. L.I.P.S. = Local Input and Planning Session
- 3:30 p.m. Adjournment

For more information, please contact
 Anna Maria Barsanti at 705 675-9171 x2631 or email
 Anna.Barsanti@police.sudbury.on.ca

You are invited to a forum on Gangs and Youth

Thursday, February 25, 2010 8:00am
 Heritage Hall (Lower Level), Caruso
 Club, 385 Haig St
 Cost: $25

Presenters

Ron "Cook" Barrett, has been involved with inner-city kids for over 23 years. He is an accomplished graffiti artist and has been directly involved with gang activity since 1986.

He is the gang prevention specialist with the Albany, NY Police Department and was hired by the City of Albany, New York's, Department of Youth and Workforce Services in 1999 and implemented the Capital Region Gang Prevention Program and Gang Prevention Center.

Clayton Thomas-Muller, of the Mathais Colomb Cree Nation also known as Pukatawagan in Northern Manitoba, Canada, is an activist for Indigenous rights and environmental justice. With his roots in the inner city of Winnipeg, Clayton began his work as a community organizer, working with Aboriginal youth. Clayton went on to achieve many accomplishments as a youth leader in the Aboriginal community.

Registration Form

Name/Nom :

Street Address/Adresse municipale:

City/Ville:

Postal Code/Code postal :

Email Address/Courriel:

Registration Fee: $25.00
 Please make cheque out to Greater Sudbury Police Service

Registration form and cheque to be mailed to:
 Anna Maria Barsanti, Education Coordinator
 Greater Sudbury Police Service
 190 rue Brady St.
 Sudbury ON P3E 1C7

Frais d'inscription : 25 $
 Veuillez libeller votre cheque à l'ordre du Service de police du Grand Sudbury.

Veuillez remplir le présent formulaire d'inscription et le poster avec votre cheque à :
 Anna Maria Barsanti
 Coordonnatrice de l'éducation
 Stratégie provinciale d'intervention contre la violence (SPIV)
 Service de police du Grand Sudbury
 190, rue Brady
 Sudbury (Ontario) P3E 1C7